

Dennis Waid, President, Peripheral Research Corp

BIOGRAPHY

Dennis Waid, President, founded Peripheral Research Corp. in 1981, to focus on the technology and market trends of magnetic storage products, and components. Peripheral Research Corp. an industry analyst firm for the Data Storage Industry, organized industry conferences in Las Vegas, Singapore, Germany, and Malaysia, and publishes reports and newsletters for the data storage industry, focussing on technology components and capital equipment trends. Dennis has 30 years experience in the Data Storage Industry, and has published numerous articles, and reports on the industry and industry trends. He has held senior management positions at TRW Systems, Inc., Century Data Systems, and Applied Magnetics Corporation; in Marketing, Finance, and Technical project management..

Dennis was a co-founder of General Systems International, Video Systems International, Media Systems Technology, Rosscomp Corp., Strategic Research Corp., and Prolytix Corp., and served as an independent consultant to Freeman Associates for 2 years.

Dennis received his B.S. Degree on Business Administration from Woodbury University, and Post graduate studies at U.C.L.A., and in Law at Western State University. He is currently a Director of Santa Barbara North Rotary Club, and on the Small Business Loan Committee for California Coastal Rural Development Corporation, a State of California, Rural Development Corp. Dennis is a member of two company Boards of Directors