

John Stevens, The Foundation

BIOGRAPHY

Four decades of experience in engineering for broadcast television stations and post-production houses places John in the unique position of not only observing the changes in the post industry over that period of time, but also guiding the many manufacturers who seek his counsel for anticipating trends. With runs at such respected facilities as Editel Chicago, Cinesite, EFILM, the PostGroup and Encore Hollywood, John brings a broad and deep practical knowledge to building and maintaining MTI Film's forward-looking technical infrastructure, which has won the appreciation of clients and employees alike.
